JANUARY 2019 Newsletter

President's Corner

Welcome to 2019! Holidays are over and the New Year is beginning. Happy New Year to everyone. We have activities planned for the month so please review the newsletter for dates and times. The security class at the Court House Library was very helpful. We have handouts for those who did not attend; they can be picked up at either of the book group meetings. Our holiday luncheon was well-attended and enjoyed by all who were able to come. Thanks to Pat Ford-Roegner and Sue Laufer as well as others who contributed to the baskets. The Scholarship Fund increased significantly due to everyone's efforts.

This month's Movie Afternoon will be held January 9th at Evelyn Lovitz's house at 4pm. We will be watching the Academy Award nominated film "Roma". Call or email Evelyn if you plan on coming. Snacks are appreciated.

Also, Tween Tech at Stockton University will take place January 4th. Thanks to those branch members who have volunteered to help. It is always a delight to see how involved the young girls become when they participate in the workshops.

Looking forward to Tween Tech on January 4. Thanks to all who volunteered to escort/register etc. Snow date is Monday, the 7th, if needed.

Mid-January you all will receive an email to volunteer for Tech Trek July 21-27. You can volunteer as student selection, Dorm Mom, one day counselor, snack gatherer, etc. Hope you can all volunteer in some way.

SAVE THE DATE for Teentech on Wednesday, May 29 at Stockton. Much like Tween Tech but for 9-11th grade girls.
