OCTOBER 2019 Newsletter

President's Corner

It is fall and our October is a time for members to wave good-bye to the summer/fall visitors. It is now AAUW time. We begin the month with our Welcome Back dinner on Oct. 9 at Aleathea's where we will order off the early bird menu. There is a surprise for everyone who comes but neither Barbara nor I are letting you know. You may guess but our lips are sealed! Please reserve by sending a check to Barbara Heinrichs if you haven't done so already. And we have two book groups meeting this month as well.

Also, there are two Save the Date events you can put on your calendar. First, on November 6 we are having a Poetry Luncheon with member Meredith Trede. We are meeting at noon at Castaways Café in the private room. Lunch will be ordered off the menu. Meredith will pick poems based on your input regarding subjects you would like to hear about. Please email her with your thoughts at mtrede@meredithtrede.com. Castaways Café is located 301 Bayshore Rd, Villas, NJ on the corner of Bayshore and Florida. Please email me if you plan on coming. Meredith has indicated that guests and spouses are welcome to attend.

And, please mark your calendars for our Holiday Luncheon which will be on December 15 this year. We will again be at the Lobster House. More details will follow in the November newsletter.

I am again looking forward to seeing many of you at any or all of the upcoming events and book groups.

Ciao, Karen

Fundraising Chairman Changeover

I'm taking over fundraising and scholarship donations for Pat Ford Roegner. For our scholarships, we hope to continue receiving donations from local banks and businesses. Pat also started our own scholarship pledges. She asked that members pledge $100 for five years. Many have already been doing that since 2017. If you would like to start contributing or make a lump sum contribution toward our scholarships, please contact me or Barb Heinrichs.

Thanks, Chris Rohrman
